On October 22, 2020, the Defendant, having previously been found in violation of her probation, a status that began May 21, 2019, appeared in open Court for final disposition.

Based upon the record made on the aforesaid October 22, 2020, the Court declined to revoke her probation and, instead, continued Defendant on probation, subject to the following:

4. She is to maintain all required contact with her Probation Officer, Laura Sebulsky.

She is to be released from the Montgomery County Jail at 9:00 a.m. on Friday, October 23, 2020, in the custody of her mother, Jodi Riley, for immediate transport to Nova Behavioral Health Center. Upon release from in-patient treatment, Defendant shall immediately report to her Probation Officer, Laura Sebulsky.

Neither counsel for the government nor for the Defendant had any procedural or substantive objections to this Court's disposition.

Following the above, the Defendant was orally explained her right of appeal, and she indicated an understanding of same.

The captioned cause is ordered terminated upon the docket records of the United States District Court for the Southern District of Ohio, Western Division, at Dayton.
